GFWC OF NORTH CAROLINA
1902 Society

History of the 1902 Society

The 1902 Society was established in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the founding of the GFWC of North Carolina and to enhance the financial security of the organization.

Continuation of the GFWC of North Carolina is important to all members. Members of the 1902 Society demonstrate their pride in and commitment to assuring the stability and longevity of our Federation through their donations.

Additional Information

- Annual deadline for receipt of contributions to the 1902 Society will be April 1st to qualify for recognition at the GFWC-NC Annual Convention.
- Donations to the 1902 Society are tax-deductible and are contributed to the GFWC-NC Operating Fund.
- Should a club contribute to the 1902 Society, the club president of record at the time of the Annual Convention, or her designee, will be the representative entitled to membership privileges.
