*Julene Barlow McPhaul Pewter Heart Dish, Kim Pfeil Pearce, donor. This award is to be given annually to a General clubwoman who by her efforts provides the "heart" for her club. It is not to be given on the basis of community or club involvement, but rather to the person who best exemplifies the words of the Collect for Clubwomen.*

Rules for Participation

1. The nominee shall not be entered for any other State individual award and can be submitted by any General club.
2. This entry is judged only on the State level. Five (5) copies shall be submitted to the current State President-elect postmarked no later than February 1. Crystal O'Neal, GFWC-NC President-elect, P.O. Box 1382, Graham, NC 27253, Email: crystalncjuniors@gmail.com, Cell Phone: 336-212-0649
3. This entry must be of no more than three pages double-spaced, including the cover sheet, and shall be judged by the State President, President-elect, and First and Second Vice Presidents.
4. Past winners of this award on the State level shall not be eligible to win the same award again.
5. A club may not enter the same member for more than one of the GFWC-NC Individual Awards. Clubs may, however, enter different members in all of the appropriate categories. Previous winners of this award on the state level are ineligible to win again.

Criteria

Judging will be based on the following criteria:

- This clubwoman may be the backbone and heart of her club, an exemplary leader or the person who has prevented its extinction. She has proven over the years ever faithful and true to the organization. She may not have missed a meeting or brought in the most new members. Through her sunny disposition, club work has been more enjoyable with the "heart" she has shared.
- How does applicant exemplify the words of the Collect for Clubwomen?
- Total 100 points.

Note: Nominees will be judged only on the information you furnish.

This Application Cover Form must be included with entry to be eligible for judging.
